Comments: Public

Ryan Olsen who lives in Stillcreek reported that he met with Blake and Buddy about some concerns at Stillcreek. He understands that there is a homeowners association that controls the subdivision. They would like to install a fence to buffer the development from North Plain City Road. The Olsen's would fund the fence. They have a petition that has been signed by the single family owners showing that they want more privacy. Ryan Olsen also noted that the homeowners association approved the trees but they have died. They are concerned that things are not getting done in accordance to the overall design. Mayor Higley suggested that they work with the homeowners association and take it to the Planning Commission. Ryan Olsen just wanted to get this on record and is asking the city to help protect the residents. He also noted that Hawkins Homes has the majority of the shares in the homeowners association.

Final Approval: Fremont Meadows Phase 1 – 1785 N 4400 W

Mayor Higley asked Erik Craythorne, the developer, if all the items on the city engineer's memo have been completed. Erik noted that they have. The Mayor asked specifically about item #3 that states that there are property owners of the east side of 4400 that extend to the west side. Erik noted that there are four owners, Vera Jenkins Trust, Robert Lamb, Kelley's and Meyers. He mentioned that he has talked with all four of them and worked out a compensation plan. Erik will put the money in escrow and will be released when the subdivision get final approval. Erik noted that Jim Lamb is out of town and Erik offered to be taken off the agenda until he was back. Jim told Erik that as long as final approval was contingent upon him getting paid, he was alright with it. Erik also reported that he has verbal agreements with both the Kelley's and the Meyer's. He has prepared an agreement for their review. He reported that he has done some research and he can't record the plat without those four signatures. The new improvements will go along the west side of the road. The property line for those on the east side will begin at the pavement. Erik noted that he did a lot of surveying and tried his best to resolve any issues. Councilmember McKean asked about the depth restriction on the plat. He reported that he is working with Brad Jensen, the city engineer on getting the correct wording on the plat. The ground elevation varies greatly and the Geo-tech engineer wants to be more specific on depth restrictions for each lot. Erik reported that Mitch's comments were addressed.

Councilmember McKean moved to approve Fremont Meadows Phase 1 contingent upon the comments of the Planning Commission and the City Engineer. Councilmember Hale seconded the motion. Councilmembers Maw, McKean and Hale voted aye. Councilmember Kelley abstained. The motion passed.

They are shooting for their final phase of the project to be at Founders Day in March 2016 at which time they will address the community. Discussion/Motion: Approval of Tentative FY2016 City Budgets

Steve Davis passed out a copy of the March financial statement for the Council to review. The proposed tentative budget was also given to the Council. Steve reported that the first column on the budget is actual for last year. The second column is this year's estimated budget and the third column is the proposed tentative for 2016. Steve went over the revenues. He noted that building permits have dropped and in turn so have the impact fees. Class C Roads is up by about $25,000 due to the new gas tax. He noted that he had to use the surplus in order to balance the projected expenditures. He noted however, that he normally does that but it usually doesn't get used in the final budget. Steve went through each department. He noted that under public safety, he only increased it a little but doesn't really know how much animal control is changing. He was asked to keep the capital outlay in the fire department because they are wanting to buy new turnouts. They cost about $2,000 each and Jeremy hopes to be able to purchase 10 of them. Steve lowered the streets and storm drain budget because there aren't any big projects coming up. He did note that he put $15,000 in the roads capital outlay for a new utility truck. He put $20,000 in parks capital outlay for and new ATV and cameras and lighting. The budget is balanced at $2,125,496. Councilmember McKean asked about how much we take from our surplus. Steve noted that most years are tight and we are able to break even without having to use it. Some years we are able to add to the surplus. Steve reported that the sewer budget is in good shape since we had the sewer increase. The landfill reserve is in good shape. Steve noted that the council needs to come up with some projects and get a priority list for capital projects. He also noted that if the council has any questions or concerns to let him know as soon as possible. The final budget will need to be approved June 18. There was a question about animal control and why the cost is changing. It was noted that there is a new building, and a bond. Sheriff Thompson reported that for the last five years, the salary for the animal shelter has come from the Sheriff's office. They are trying to get the consumer of the facility to bear the burden or cost of the department. He did note however that the Lt. over the Animal Shelter also does projects for the Sheriff's office. About 2/3 of the pay and benefits will come from Animal Control and 1/3 from the Sheriff's office. This is all supposed to be in place by July 2016. Sheriff Thompson didn't know the exact cost. Councilmember Maw moved to approve the tentative budget for fiscal year 2016 as presented. Councilmember Kelley seconded the motion. Councilmembers Kelley, Maw, McKean and Hale voted aye. The motion carried.

The property also abuts Farr West City. He noted that the County won't allow septic tanks because the nearness of the Farr West City sewer line. Christian reported that they have approached Farr West City and they are willing to work with them on the sewer but they wanted to wait until the disconnection of Plain City. Ultimately they want to have the whole development and the improvements in one jurisdiction. The Mayor noted that that the council needs to look closely at this and review all of the information. Discussion/Motion: City Website

Councilmember Hale reported that there are three options. The first we could continue with Lori. The second is going with Weebly, which is affordable and she sent the council a link to it a while back. The third is Civic Plus. They are a company that will help and train our staff and house the server. They have a lot of features that would be useful and nice. She noted that residents can sign up and be notified of any new posting. It would also work in the case of an emergency and we could notify people quickly. She reported that they gave her two bids. The basic is $6,000 to start up and then $200 per month. The other is $10,000 to start up plus $200 per month. The $10,000 option will automatically be updated in two years. Councilmember Hale noted that it would take about 6 months to get it set up. She noted that she and Diane had a demo with them and it is a good product. She looked at some of the other city sites that they do. She reported that she liked Civic Plus because it is user-friendly and so easily customized. She reported that Colette would have access and could also do scheduling of the parks. They can accept online payments and it is a simple "drag and drop" process. She also likes that Civic Plus will maintain the server. The Mayor feels that our website is for informational purposes only. It was noted that technology changes frequently. There was a concern about a company going out of business and then what happens to the site. It was suggested that we investigate the option of maintaining it on our server and then we wouldn't have to pay the monthly fee. Councilmember Hale noted that the company she works for pays about $3,500 a year. The Mayor feels that it is a service to provide information to the city but is concerned about spending too much time and money on it. Councilmember Hale pointed out that we are already spending $2,400 per year. Councilmember McKean would like to build a site and have the office update it. The Mayor noted that that Diane is swamped and the question becomes who will maintain it. Councilmember Hale reported that she previously set up the Weebly site and it wasn't hard to do. Councilmember Carrigan reported that social media is huge and is the way we need to be looking. It was reported that Civic Plus can hook in with Facebook, Twitter and Instagram. Councilmember Hale reported that the Weebly site is in limbo right now but she can send out links again to the council. It was noted that online payments for recreation and celebrations can happen right now through Sportsite on our current website. The Mayor noted that the concern a couple months ago was that our website needs to have current information on it. Councilmember Hale reported that currently, Lori writes code and she is the only person authorized to put something up. A while back, Lori was sick and no one else could put anything up. It was noted that Weebly is compatible to smart phones. It was also discussed that the city needs to be a gate keeper. Councilmember Hale noted that she is willing to do it while she is on the council and then maybe even longer. Councilmember McKean moved to approve the option of Weebly for the website and train the office staff with maintain the website. Councilmember Carrigan seconded the motion. Councilmember Hale noted that she will work on the payments and tweak the Weebly site. Councilmembers Maw, McKean, Carrigan and Hale voted aye. Councilmember Hale reported that she needs items for the newsletter next Thursday. There is a 4th of July meeting on Tuesday. She is recommended that Steve and Pat Smith be the Grand Marshalls this year. The council felt that was good.

The Mayor noted that he and Jeremy attended a meeting for the Weber County Emergency Mitigation Plan. He asked Jeremy to explain. Jeremy reported that on a county-wide basis they are preparing a plan to address potential areas of concern and to participate with FEMA as a way to get grant money. They want to mitigate emergencies before they happen. He noted that the County wants each city to designate an emergency manager. The Mayor feels that this should be the fire chief and be added to the job description. Jeremy reported that there was a staff meeting with Diane, Mitch and Dusty and came up with a list of things that could be included on the plan such as lift stations, bridges, generators and seismic upgrades for the fire department and city office. If a grant were applied for, it would be a 80/20 match. The plan needs to be adopted in August and the rough draft should be available in July. It will then have to be open for public comments for 30 days.

The Mayor noted that the school is going down and is taking a while. They are sifting through the materials so everything doesn't have to go to the landfill.

Michelle Kayle noted that she was here from Syringa and got caught in traffic and missed the discussion. The Mayor suggested that she get with Brandon and when everything is worked out, get back on the agenda.
